BECA Bonuses Presented to College

Denzil and Donna McNeilus, '81 and '79, present to President Don Sahly the 1987-88 bonus check ($17,500) from the Business Executives' Challenge to Alumni. With them at the Twelfth Annual Dinner for Philanthropy, held in Minneapolis, Minn., on October 31, is Dr. Jack McClarty, vice president for development. The McNeiluses participated in funding the eight-year program of bonuses to encourage alumni giving at Adventist colleges in North America.

Alumni Find Restoration Incomplete

A large group of alumni met in unfinished Lynn Wood Hall on the Sabbath afternoon of Homecoming '88 to reminisce and celebrate. Don Crook, '53, led in nostalgic singing of Harold Miller songs. Further gifts designated for Lynn Wood Hall are needed in order to complete the project.

Alumnus Honored at White House

President Ronald Reagan, left, recently presented to Ellsworth McKee, '54, right, president and CEO of McKee Baking Company, a Presidential Award for Private Sector Initiatives for its efforts to encourage broader participation in Adopt-A-School programs. John Phelan, Jr., center, chairs the Presidential Board of Advisors on Private Sector Initiatives. McKee Baking Company, Collegedale, manufactures Little Debbie Snack Cakes and employs a number of SC students. The presentation was at the White House.

So-Ju-Conian Scholarships Awarded

Dr. Edythe Cothren, registrar and music teacher from 1928-33, left, pins a corsage for Amber Murphy, a freshman elementary education student, after presenting her with a $300 So-Ju-Conian Heritage Scholarship. A third-generation student at Southern, Amber's parents are Bob and Anne Murphy, '65 and '64, of Altamonte Springs, Fla. Her grandmother is Anne Boyce Denslow, '33. She is the grand-niece of Maude Jones, English teacher from 1917 to 1955. A similar scholarship also went to Joanna Lorren, whose grandparents attended SJC.

THANKS . . . to each donor . . .

from Southern's students, faculty, and staff.

Reflecting on my two years as president of Southern, I realize that our expansion in educational opportunities for students needing a financial boost, encouragement of quality learning for every student through such provisions as up-to-date equipment and lecture series, and improvement of the college's financial strength could not have been accomplished without the supporters listed in this report.

These donors are to be congratulated for their commitment to the caring environment of education at Southern College. Scholarships have been established (such as the Cashman-Offer Scholarship for ministerial or music students set up by Marion Cashman). Graduating seniors have given their vote of appreciation to their college by designating the alumni loyalty fund to receive their class gift. Though everyone may have a different reason to give, and each may give a different amount, the exciting thing is, all of these people gave.

Monetary gifts and gifts-in-kind from alumni and friends totaled more than $2 million in 1987-88. Within this total is $195,000 from 2,705 alumni donors participating in the Business Executives' Challenge to Alumni (BECA). These alumni figures are almost four times what they were in 1980-81.

I see even brighter days ahead for Southern. In order to realize its God-given potential, however, Southern will need to rely on all its supporters more than ever.

Gifts are gratefully received and promptly receipted by the Development Office at any time of year. The current alumni loyalty fund drive concludes June 30, 1989.

Once again, my personal appreciation to each of you.

Donald R. Sahly
President of Southern College

Thanks, alumni, for yo om wells we did not dig and by fires we did not build.

THANK YOU

One hallmark of a great college is a long list of individuals and organizations who share their resources to support its mission and programs. The following list of donors is current and includes those who have given within the past three fiscal years (between July 1, 1985, and June 30, 1988).

Every attempt has been made for accuracy. If by chance your name has been misspelled, inadvertently omitted, or misplaced, please accept our apologies and advise the Development Office so that records can be corrected.

Alumni Gifts Are Like Music to the Ears

Gifts from alumni help provide scholarships for students. Gifts also provide classroom and lab equipment not otherwise obtainable. A special thank you to each donor from the 1443 students at Southern College. Pictured is Mary Walkowiak, a member of the SC Concert Band and the SC Symphony Orchestra, both of which performed for Homecoming 88 guests.

Victor Czerkasij, '83, shares an animated moment with classmates, Bert and Darlene Ringer, '83, following his presentation of the Sabbath School lesson.

Your Phone Will Ring

The Annual Phonathon will be conducted during January, February, and March of 1989. When your phone rings, it could be either a faculty member, alumni volunteer, or a current student calling. Not only will they be interested in receiving your pledge to the Alumni Loyalty $195,000 goal, but they will also solicit information for SOUTHERN COLUMNS.

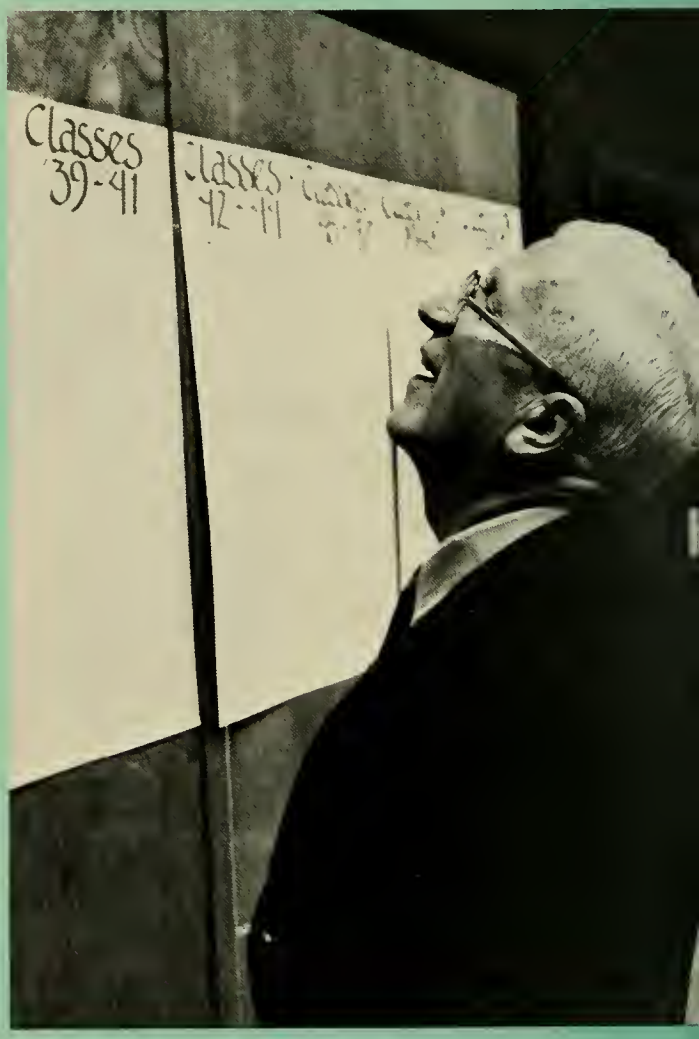
The Survey's Coming—
Send It Back!

All alumni with current addresses will soon receive an important Alumni Directory Questionnaire in the mail. This is being sent to give every alumnus the opportunity to be accurately listed in the upcoming Southern College Alumni Directory.

Please be sure to complete and return your directory questionnaire as soon as possible!

Once received, your information will be edited and processed by Harris Publishing Co., Inc. Over 6,000 alumni will be included in this impressive new directory.

If you don't return your questionnaire there is a possibility you may be inadvertently omitted. So don't take a chance . . . watch for your questionnaire and remember to return it promptly.



Dr. A. C. Ford, '38, checks the class bulletin board for names of alumn he will remember.
