TRANSITIONS

Library says goodbye to Writing Center coordinator

Becky Whetmore, current Writing Center coordinator, is stepping down from her role on June 20 to pursue a masters degree in English from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

Becky began working in the Writing Center as a tutor while pursuing an English degree here at Southern. She took on the role of coordinator after graduation. Becky assisted with transition of the Writing Center into a library department in 2013.

McKee Library would like to thank Becky for successfully leading the university's Writing Center these past six years. She will be missed!

RESEARCH GRANT

Center for the Study of 19th Century America calls for applications

A grant of $650.00 will be given by McKee Library's Center for the Study of 19th Century America to those individuals committed to doing scholarly research regarding a facet of 19th Century American history.
