Campus Research Day, held on April 12, 2016, highlighted the scholarly activities of 387 Southern Adventist University students.

“Campus Research Day is a wonderful celebration of the research, inquiry, and pursuit of truth that is happening on our campus,” stated Katie McGrath, Campus Research Day chair. “Our students go the extra mile to make this a success; I am so proud of them and their work!”

Departments represented in the event include the following: English, biology, chemistry, history, journalism and communications, nursing, physical education, visual art, physics/engineering, psychology, and social work.

In participating in Campus Research Day, students gain real-world experience conducting a professional presentation. Students also have the opportunity to publish their research on KnowledgeExchange@Southern, Southern Adventist University’s institutional repository.

Special thanks to Katie McGrath and Pamela Jansen for organizing and coordinating the event and to all the faculty who assisted students with research.

Focus on Writing: MLA Update for 2016

“The Modern Language Association (MLA) has updated its guidelines for student writers in the 8th edition of the MLA Handbook (2016). As a service to users of Bedford/St. Martin’s textbooks, we offer this overview of the major changes in MLA style.

Notable Changes

- MLA uses the organizing principle of “container.” A container might be an anthology, a periodical, a Web site, a television program, a database, an online archive, etc. Basically, containers are enclosed by periods, with commas used for the elements within the containers.
- Use et al. for three or more authors in works cited entries and in in-text citations.
- Use p. and pp. for all page numbers in works cited entries.
- Spell out editor, translator, edited by, etc. Continue to abbreviate vol. for “volume” and ed. for “edition” in works cited entries.
- Indent for long quotations in text is now ½ inch (not 1 inch).
- If the publisher name is the same as the Web site title, omit the publisher name.”

History conference, Research & Writing Center summer hours, and library faculty member on leave

History Conference

On Friday, April 22, McKee Library’s Center for the Study of 19th Century America, in conjunction with the History and Political Science department, hosted The Long Nineteenth Century: Nationalism, Industrialization, and Faith.

This one-day conference featured researchers and historians from Chattanooga, Kentucky, and Georgia and focused on nineteenth century America. Participants were also given a tour of McKee Library’s special collections.

Presenters from Southern included Rod Bussey, Whittni McDonald, Michael Cafferky, and Linda Tym.

Special thanks to Lisa Diller, Deyse Bravo-Rivera and Jessica Spears for organizing this event! Research & Writing Center

McKee Library is proud to announce that the Research & Writing Center will remain open throughout the summer. For appointments, please visit the library’s website.

Deyse Bravo-Rivera On Leave

Deyse Bravo-Rivera will be out of the office on maternity leave. In her absence, please contact Seth Shaffer at sshaffer@southern.edu regarding periodicals and Jessica Spears at jspears@southern.edu regarding special collections, art displays, and KnowledgeExchange.
