"I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord."
Psalm 122:1

Down Little Creek Lane

Enter expectantly,
Breathe prayerfully,
Worship reverently,
Relax restfully,
Greet others cordially,
Leave thoughtfully,
Come again soon.

"In this time of special danger for the young, temptations surround them on every hand: and while it is easy to drift, the strongest effort is required in order to press against the current. Every school should be a "city of refuge" for tempted youth, a place where their follies shall be dealt with patiently and wisely." Ed 293

Foreword

Since this is Little Creek's first annual, we the annual staff, would like to give you an insight into the aims and purposes of the school.

We work as we learn. For half the day we care for the tasks that keep the school and the sanitarium going, developing skills that will increase our usefulness in the years that are before us.

During the other half of the day we study subjects that prepare us either for our life work, or for attending college. We all know that our education can never be completed. We see that this is only a preparatory school and can look for a higher education in the school above.

Social relations are very important. We are given training in proper behavior in church, at evening entertainments, at concerts, and in our general relationship with others. It is pleasant to have friends who will listen to our problem, sorrows, and our joys. Our best friend is Jesus and we ought to keep Him closest to us, that He might help us in everything that we do.

Our Spiritual growth begins each morning as we gather in the chapel for our morning worship. We increase our spiritual relations with Christ through our worships, prayer meetings, weeks of prayer, and our church services. The most important way to increase our relationship with Christ is by our personal devotions. Our personal devotions in the mornings bring cheerfulness and happiness throughout the day.

We would like for you to join us now as we go Down Little Creek Lane.

President's Message

Congratulations on the first school "Annual" in thirty-five years of history at Little Creek. As is true in every phase of human endeavor, the accomplishments of worth-while objectives requires dedication, perseverance, and hard work. This year's production is evidence of the dedication of its staff. Especial thanks are due Miss Lila Frederick without whose dedicated and determined leadership there would again have been no product.

There have been plans in previous years for an annual, but no annual appeared. Without planning, work tends to become slipshod and inefficient; but those who never get beyond planning, who never get their plans off the drawing board, miss the thrill of accomplishment--in fact, miss the whole point of living.

Before plans come dreams and ideas--imagination! But, there are those who live in an imaginary world--a world of dreams and plans. It takes hours of struggle and effort to produce results from dreams and plans.

My hope for the students and faculty of Little Creek this year is that we may all learn the lessons of being balanced men and women in Christ. Plans balanced by accomplishment--dreams of fruition.

Finally, may we never forget that for youth, rooted and grounded in Christ and balanced by principle, there is no limit to the height that may be attained.

Sincerely,

Leland Straw

OUR NEW BUS

March 19 was a big day for everyone. Owing to the generosity of friends, Little Creek Academy is the proud owner of a forty-one passenger bus. You can be sure excitement ran high when Chaplain Keplinger and Mr. Ed Williams came driving in at 5:40 o'clock in the morning. The bus was initiated the following day when the band made a trip to Greeneville. Everyone appreciated going together instead of the usual caravan.

True education means more than the pursual of a certain course of study. It means more than a preparation for the life that now is...It is the harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual powers. It prepares the student for the joy of service in this world and for the higher joy of wider service in the world to come. Ed 13

Elder Dart speaks on family relationships.

Week of Prayer

Each night brought with it a new and wonderful phase of Christianity.

Tuesday: "Now unto Him that is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us." Ephesians 3:20

Wednesday: The Matchless Charms of Christ:

- 1st charm - The many beautiful things Christ made for our benefit.
- 2nd charm - The four gospels separately or combined as in Desire of Ages.
- 3rd charm - The many names for Christ.

Thursday: "...and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." John 6:37

Friday: The story of the last 15 hours of the life of Christ was portrayed. After the story Elder Engelkemier gave us time to have our past wrongs and grudges forgiven. It was a unique and valuable meeting, and we all gained a better understanding of our Lord.

Sabbath: The commands that Jesus gave us are also promises that He will help us meet the requirements.

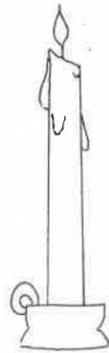

Vespers: A replica of the Book of Life was provided for all to sign who wished to dedicate their lives to Christ and meet Him in heaven.

A bonfire was built after vespers to forever rid each person of the articles which stood between him and Christ.

As we sat around the fire, Elder Engelkemier told the fascinating story of the second coming of Christ.

Thus ended a beautiful Week of Prayer.

This Little Light...

SCHOOL SONG

Students of Little Creek
Happy are we,
Roaming the countryside
Blithesome and free,
Learning in all we do
Lessons of truth,
Serving the God of love
In the days of our youth.

Classmates of Little Creek
Loyal are we,
Captains in Christian ways
Leaders to be,
Raising our standard high
Gleaming and bright,
Marching to sure success
Down the pathway of right.

Students of Little Creek
Friends through the years
Binding in Christian love
All we hold dear.
Memories of Little Creek
Never will die--
Keeping our hearts in tune
To the best things of life.

Composed by

The musical score consists of four systems of staves. Each system has a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines.

KUDOS

From the Faculty to the Students for the delightful party the Girls' Club and the Boys' Club gave us on December 14, 1975. The pictures alas met with disaster, but it is a memory we will long cherish. The dinner was delicious and the program superbly presented. Thank you for the loveliest evening of the year.

The students and annual staff would like to express their thanks to Miss Lila Frederick, whose willingness and persistence made this annual possible.

To Donna Myers for suggesting "Down Little Creek Lane" as a title for our yearbook.

To our Sponsors and Advertisers, without whose generous support this annual would not have been possible.
