ADVENTIST UNIVERSITY

Campus Research
Symposium

April 14, 2015

Keynote Address

Jack W. Plunkett

8:30 - 9:30 a.m.

Lynn Wood Hall Chapel

Jack Plunkett is the author or editor of more than 30 books. A life-long entrepreneur, he has been recognized as a regional finalist in the “Entrepreneur of the Year” competition sponsored by Ernst & Young. His influence on the world of business and academia is so broad that, on any given day, a Google search for “Jack W. Plunkett” is likely to return more than 2 million results. In a provocative, engaging manner, his research spans the globe, inspires audiences, and prompts innovative ways of thinking and solving problems.

Plunkett’s client list includes 10,000 leading corporations, universities, and government agencies worldwide. Long-term clients include Yale University, the University of Virginia, and Rice University; government agencies including the Hong Kong Trade Council, the Canadian Ministry of Trade, and the U.S. Department of Commerce; along with corporations including Procter & Gamble and Deutsche Bank.

Plunkett’s research is distributed in the U.S. and around the globe by such firms as Bloomberg, ThomsonReuters, Factset, and the CapitalIQ division of Standard & Poor’s. His work has been widely covered by such media as USA Today and Inc. Magazine. Plunkett is frequently interviewed as an expert source by publications such as Time, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times and Investor’s Business Daily, as well as NPR’s Marketplace, ABC News, and Marketwatch.
