ADVENTIST EXHIBIT

Conference exhibit to be displayed at McKee Library

The General Conference's 150th Anniversary Exhibit will be featured in McKee Library on February 24 - March 13, 2014, during regular library hours.

The exhibit, created by the General Conference Office of Archives, Statistics, and Research, highlights the history of the church from the Millerite Movement to the growth of the denomination and global ministry on twelve distinct banners.

To read more about the formation of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination, read "United for Mission: One Hundred and Fifty Years, From Great Disappointment to General Conference" at <http://goo.gl/MPUdzZ>.

FACULTY SHOWCASE

Librarians to present at this month's Faculty Showcase

Librarians Deyse Bravo Rivera and Jessica Spears will present at Faculty Showcase on February 26, at 12:00 pm.

Deyse will discuss how KnowledgeExchange@Southern can be used to introduce students to the peer-review process and to promote student and faculty research.

Jessica will introduce the use of Articulate Storyline and Studio software, which includes three tools that allow professors to create Flash-based presentation, quizzes, assessments, surveys, and interactive content for e-learning courses.

For more information regarding these two topics, please contact Deyse at dbravo@southern.edu or Jessica at jspears@southern.edu.
