Chicago Vegetarian December 1896

Chicago Vegetarian

Follow this and additional works at: https://knowledge.e.southern.edu/foodiesguide-1890

Part of the Food Science Commons, and the United States History Commons
Virchand R. Gandhi is conducting classes in esoteric studies and oriental philosophy in room 1314, Masonic Temple.

The Brahmachairi Bodhchakshu spoke before the Chicago Theosophical Society Sunday evening, October 22nd, on "Christianity, Buddhism, and

Dr. J. H. Kellogg, of Battle Creek, Mich., spoke at a meeting "to consider methods of relief for the unemployed, homeless and destitute" held in Will Hall on Sunday, October 11th.

THE VEGETARIAN SOCIETY
OF AMERICA

The Toast Responded to by the President
Mr. Toastmaster, Ladies and Gentlemen:—The sentiment given in such a kind and complimentary spirit, and so cordially received by you, is another evidence, added to many others, of the hearty and generous feelings which have ever existed between the Chicago Vegetarian Society and the one which

VIRCHAND R. GANDHI, B. A., M. R. A. S.

[Who Will be One of the Speakers at the Banquet.]

Their Relation to Hinduism. — Rev. H. S. Clubb, of the Bible Christian Church, Philadelphia, will preach a vegetarian sermon on Thanksgiving morning under the auspices of the Chicago Vegetarian Society.

Mrs. Anna Leger, president of the Englewood branch of the Chicago Vegetarian Society, has been re-elected presi-

To make sure of getting them, extra copies of the Banquet Number of the journal should be ordered now. Five cents per copy.

Beginning with the next issue of the CHICAGO VEGETARIAN the subscription price will be 50 cents per year. Subscriptions will be received this month at the present rate.

Mary S. Clubb

[Pres. Vegetarian Society of America]

I have the honor to represent and which covers in its aspiration this vast continent of America. Although in its infancy, it already operates in all the United States and territories, in the British possessions and also to some extent in Mexico and other southern republics.

There certainly has been never been any reason why this cordiality should not

[Continued on page fourteen.]

DECEMBER MEETINGS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chicago Vegetarian Society will be held on Tuesday evening, December 1st, at 8 o'clock, at the Auditorium Annex, Michigan avenue and Congress street (Congress street entrance). After the disposition of some business matters — including the election of officers, which was postponed at the last meeting — the meeting will take the form of a social.

Everybody welcome.

The West Side branch will meet Wednesday evening, December 9th, at 8 o'clock, at residence of Mrs. Andrews, 676 W. Madison street. Mr. F. G. Wilhelm will speak upon "How to Overcome Flesh-Eating."

The North Side branch will meet Monday evening, December 21st, at 8 o'clock, at the Hotel Luzerne, North Clark and Center streets. Louise E. Francis, of San Francisco, will give an address upon "Food and its Relation to Character, Individual and National."

The Englewood branch will meet Tuesday evening, December 22nd, at 8 o'clock, at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, 6310 Harvard ave. Mrs. Anna Leger will read a paper on "Progress of Vegetarianism."

F. E. GREENE, Corresponding Sec'y.

The address of Bramachairi Bodhapku at the last meeting of the North Side Branch brought out a large number of the admirers of the young Hindu philosopher from all parts of the city, and even from out of town. The two parlors in the Hotel Luzerne were unable to accommodate all who sought admittance, many being turned away.

At a meeting of the Anthropological Society on November 5th, Mrs. A. M. Forwerg read a paper on "Soul of the World."