THERAPY DOGS AT THE LIBRARY

Local therapy dogs visited with students before finals last semester

On Friday, December 12, 2014, McKee Library proudly hosted five dogs from Therapy Dog International for the library’s first ever therapy dog visit. Many students came to the library to visit with the dogs, with several students coming more than one time. Even a few faculty members joined in on the fun.

The event was an overwhelming success, with students requesting a return visit in the near future. The use of therapy dogs in academic libraries is not a new concept. Many libraries offer students a chance to socialize with these dogs in order to reduce stress, especially during finals.

The library is planning to host the therapy dogs again in May.

Valentine’s Events

McKee Library is proud to offer two Valentine’s Day events this February.

Students, faculty, and staff are invited to create a free handmade Valentine’s Day card for that special someone.

Students can also participate in Blind Date with a Book. This unique event gives students a chance to select a book to read based on a few characteristics of the work.

Both events will take place until February 16, 2015 on the library’s main floor.

Schedule an Instruction Session
