CAMPUS RESEARCH DAY DRAWS NEAR

Library sponsored event highlights the research of graduate and undergraduate students

Campus Research Day is on Tuesday, April 14, 2015.

Over 150 Southern graduate and undergraduate researchers will participate in this one day conference celebrating the research activities happening on the campus of Southern Adventist University.

The keynote address will take place at 8:30 a.m. in Lynn Wood Hall Chapel and will feature Jack W. Plunkett, author of the Axiom Business Book Award Winning title, The Next Boom. Plunkett’s address will explore the role of research in understanding vital trends in business, technology, consumers, and globalization.

A full day of break-out sessions will follow the keynote address, at which point students will give both oral and poster presentations showcasing their research work this semester.

Two convocation credits will be available to Research Day participants and attendees. One credit can be earned by attending the keynote address, and another credit can be earned by attending a break-out session during the day.

For more information on the event, please visit the event webpage or contact Katie McGrath at kmcgrath@southern.edu.

Library News

National Poetry Month events, library instruction, and requesting new items

National Poetry Month
Throughout the month of April, McKee Library will showcase several displays in honor of National Poetry Month. Artists from the Civic Arts League of Chattanooga will showcase a collection of art inspired by poems. This exhibit is on display from March 3 through May 19, 2015, on the library’s second floor.

Faculty and students are encouraged to stop by one of the library’s poetry stations to create their own unique poem using provided poetry words. A selection of poetry works will be available for check out on the main floor of the library throughout the month of April.

Library Instruction for Summer Courses
