Homecoming Plans Include Wright, Holland

Annual Homecoming events will begin on Friday evening, November 4, in the new church sanctuary at Southern Missionary College at 7:30 p.m.

Guest speakers will include Elder K. A. Wright, a former SMC president, and Elder Don Holland, MV secretary of the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference.

Honor classes are graduates of '41 and '56.

The Saturday evening entertainment in the new Physical Education Center will feature Stan Midgley in the film lecture "Northwest Adventure." Midgley is known as one of America's outstanding humorous lecturers. Admission will be complimentary to alumni families.

According to Elder J. Don Crook, association president, the expected attendance indicates the largest Homecoming in SMC's history.

Madison Alumni Furnish Chapel

Madison College Alumni have recently given a gift to Madison Hospital that will benefit Southern Missionary College's Associate Degree Program students who are currently studying on the Madison Extension Campus.

This is a gift of beautiful new furnishings for the hospital chapel, named for Dr. A. J. Sutherland, a former president of Madison College.

The beautiful chapel has a Baldwin organ, lovely church furniture, and wall-to-wall carpet.

The Alumni gift included the organ, pews, pulpit, Bible table, carpet, picture screen, and 30 books.

The entire chapel is bathed with glorious light coming through stained glass windows which creates subdued, yet sparkling beauty. This dedicated area, open day and night, will be greatly appreciated by the students of nursing on the Madison Extension Campus.

Construction to Begin On Sign for Campus Mall

Construction will begin shortly on the new entrance sign, a gift of the members of the Southern Missionary College Alumni Association.

College Hosts Alumni at GC

SMC administrative officers were hosts to the following alumni at the General Conference reception and "Get-together:"

Ludington, Elder and Mrs. A. C. McKee, Gordon Madgwick, Agnes and Robert W. Merchant, M. E. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Rees, Ardith and Wilbert Schneider, Edna E. Stoneburner, Ella May Stoneburner, W. E. VandeVere, Edwin Zollinger, W. H. Taylor.

The sign will be located at the front of the mall between the two main auto entrances. It will be of brick construction, decorated at each end by a planter, and aluminum letters across the front will read:

Southern Missionary College

A small plaque will be mounted, denoting the sign as a gift of the Alumni Association.

We are printing the letter of thanks from Dr. C. N. Rees, president of the college, written to the alumni officers and members of the association:

"At a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees, the architect's drawing of the college entrance sign was presented to the members of the board. They were told that the Alumni Association was raising money to make this sign and to provide the necessary funds for it.

"The board wished me, as secretary, to convey to you, as president and the officers and members of the Alumni Association, that they were most appreciative of your thoughtfulness in making this fine contribution to the plan of the campus.

"Possibly, some time in the future you will have the opportunity to express this appreciation to the alumni for their contribution."

Most cordially yours,
C. N. Rees, President, SMC

Miss Kallar Tells Of Pioneer Days Of Junior College

Miss Addie Mae Kallar writes from Caldwell, Idaho, about the opening of Southern Junior College in 1917. She says that was really a pioneer year. There were three seniors, and the graduation was held at the old yellow house with chairs on the lawn.

Miss Kallar, who has served more than 30 years as a Bible instructor, recalls that she lived in #1 of the new girls' dormitory. They had no doors and no heat, only a small oil heater. Those were really pioneer days.

Annual Homecoming
November 4 and 5

The new sign for the college, being provided by the Alumni Association, will be placed at the head of the campus mall (see artist's sketch above) between the automobile entrances. The mall stretches out in front of the new administration building (building in center with tall columns).

This building, now under construction, will be finished in early 1967 and will alleviate the classroom and office shortage in Lynn Wood Hall, the present administration building.

The artist's sketch also shows the new dormitory on the left of the mall; this structure is also under construction. Footings have been run, and the walls are going up on this building, which will eventually be used for the young women.

The new alumni sign, in the midst of these improvements, identify the fastest growing college in the denomination—SMC.

Bowen Plans Alumni Year

On behalf of the new Alumni officers for 1967, I would like to extend greetings to all graduates and former students of Southern Missionary College. It is with a deep sense of responsibility of serving as your newly elected officers that we assume our duties.

SMC has now become the fastest growing college in the denomination, thus the Alumni Association must give ever-increasing help to its college at this time of rapid expansion.

As we formulate plans for the coming year, there are three areas that will receive our special attention. They are:

- (1) Up-dating Alumni records as to member activity, new degrees received, new members to families, etc.
- (2) Local chapter activities and organization.
- (3) Early plans for 1967 Alumni Homecoming.

Dr. Dewitt Bowen

SMC Alumni Go As Missionaries

Robert W. and Ann Maxwell Burchard, '59 and '55, business manager, Tokyo Sanitarium. Returning after furlough.

Susan Rozell, '66, teacher, Salisbury Park School, Poona, India.

Elder and Mrs. F. C. Petty, '41 and '65, chaplain-pastor of the Guadalajara, Mexico, English church.

Homecoming Draws Crowd

On Friday, November 4, registration took place in the Women's Residence Hall and the Collegedale Church.

Elder Kenneth A. Wright, former president of SMC, was the featured speaker for the Vesper Service at 7:30 P.M. The title of his sermon was "Am I My Brother's Keeper, or Am I My Brother's Brother." He used as his text Genesis 4:9—the story of Cain and Abel. He stated that one should be a brother to someone who doesn't have a brother. The greatest thrill in the world is being of service to someone else. He related the story of the talents and how they were used. Everyone has at least one talent, and it is his responsibility to use it in the right manner. All God asks of us is to do our best with whatever we have. Man may be in active service for God while engaged in ordinary everyday duties. The mother who is training her children for God is doing as great a job as the minister in the pulpit.

On Sabbath, November 5, Elder Don Holland, MV secretary of the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference, was the featured speaker for the Sabbath service. He spoke on "Atomic Power," using as his text, Isaiah 40: 26-29. One cannot look to other men for power. All are capable of doing the will of God, he didn't make us in-
