About the Items
Two presidential campaign buttons are on display on the library’s main floor. These buttons, dated 1860 (left) and 1864 (right), are part of the Thomas Memorial Collection.

About the Collection
Included in this collection are more than 2,700 volumes as well as authentic photos concerning Abraham Lincoln and the Civil War. A $10 check signed by Lincoln is also part of the collection and has been included in The Papers of Abraham Lincoln project. Other interesting materials include a piece of oak from the floor of Lincoln’s Springfield law office, a gavel made from a tree planted by Lincoln, and a section of his original marble sarcophagus.

View the Items
These items may be viewed on the library’s main floor in the Thomas Memorial Collection display case located near the periodicals area. To see additional items from this collection, please contact Deyse Bravo-Rivera at dbravo@southern.edu.

19TH CENTURY AMERICA GRANT
Every year, the Center for the Study of 19th Century America is able to give two grants of up to $1,200 to scholars who are researching an aspect of 19th century American history.

Eligibility Requirements
All applicants must be a Southern Adventist University student or faculty with a research project related to 19th century America. Students must have the endorsement of a Southern Adventist University faculty member.

How to Apply
The application, which is due on Wednesday, January 16, 2019, is available on the library’s website.
