SUMMER LIBRARY CONSTRUCTION & BOOK REQUESTS

Construction will begin at McKee Library on May 6; however, many resources will remain available to the campus community.

McKee Library will undergo several updates this summer. Plant Services will give the library an electrical upgrade as well as new ceiling tiles and LED light fixtures on the second floor.

Library Closure

McKee Library will be closed the week of May 6 through 10 for asbestos abatement. During this week, the librarians will be available via chat, email, and phone. Virtual research coaching appointments will be available for students.

Virtual tutoring appointments will be available with the Writing Center. The Tutoring Center will be closed during this week.

Continued Construction

Following the abatement, the second floor will remain closed to library visitors as the ceiling panels and electrical components are upgraded. The main floor of the library, including the Writing Center and the Tutoring Center, will be open during this time.

IBISWorld is the gold standard for locating information about a particular industry, which is great if you are starting a business or researching an industry for a class. Each industry report includes information about the industry at a glance, performance, outlook, products & markets, competitive landscape, major companies, operating conditions, and key statistics.

An overview of each industry includes information on the supply chain, key economic drivers, supply industries, demand industries, related industries, and related international reports. Also included for each industry are major players, the main activities of the industry, similar industries, industry jargon, a glossary, and additional resources. The industry at a glance tab provides a statistical snapshot, the industry structure, and an executive summary. The industry performance tab includes key external drivers, current performance, and historical revenue growth.

The industry outlook tab provides information on future productivity, revenue, the industry life cycle, and key considerations. The product and markets tab provides information on the supply chain—key buying and selling industries—products and services, demand determinants, major markets, international trade, and business locations. The competitive landscape tab includes market share concentration, key success factors, cost structure benchmarks, basis of competition, barriers to entry, and industry globalization. The major companies tab lists the major players and other companies to consider. The operating conditions tab includes information on capital intensity, technology & systems, revenue volatility, regulation & policy, and industry assistance. The key statistics tab includes statistics for industry data, annual change, key ratios, and industry financial ratios. In addition, IBISWorld has US Industry iExpert Summaries, which condense the integral elements from their industry reports into bite-sized paragraphs, graphics and tables, highlighting the key issues with a Q&A section for each of the 700 NAICS industries.
