LIBRARY TRANSITIONS

Transitions lead to significant changes at McKee Library

Periodicals Transitions
After serving as Evening Reference Librarian/Periodicals Librarian for four years, Pamela Foard decided to pursue new opportunities. Seth Shaffer, who previously served as Periodicals and Office Manager, transitioned to her role in June 2019. We are excited to have Seth in his new role at the library.

Evening Librarian & Research Coaching
Katie McGrath is now serving as the library’s evening librarian. She will be available in the afternoons and evenings for research coaching appointments.

Library Instruction Scheduling
Librarians provide information literacy instruction for on campus, hybrid, and online courses.
To request library instruction or to collaborate on a research project, please contact the following librarians:

The Good Gut: Taking Control of Your Weight, Your Mood, and Your Long-term Health

Written by Justin and Erica Sonnenburg
QR171.G29 S66 2016

The Good Gut is a groundbreaking work that offers a new plan for health that focuses on how to nourish your microbiota, including recipes and a menu plan. The Sonnenburgs show how we can keep our microbiota off the endangered species list and strengthen the community that inhabits our gut and thereby improve our own health.
If you are brainstorming a topic to write about, or just need some background information on a topic, the CREDO Reference database provides access to millions of full text articles from hundreds of encyclopedias, dictionaries, thesauri, and subject-specific titles, as well as over 50,000 images, audio files, and videos. You are able to conduct a basic and advanced search with keywords, titles, authors, as well as sort the results by relevance, length, and publication date. When you locate a topic of interest, Credo suggests related topics, related articles, images, and other databases you might want to search to gather additional information on your topic.

A unique search feature of this database is a mind map (left). For example, searching the mind map for nursing allows users to discover additional topics. Clicking on any of these topics links to more topics, as well as linking back to the original mind map.

In addition, you can browse the database by title, topic pages, and mind maps. The title browse feature provides you with an A to Z list of all the publications in the database, but you are able to use the subject filter on the left side of the screen to quickly find all the titles in your field of interest. You can also browse by topic pages, then filter the topics by subject, which is an efficient way to receive suggestions for paper topics or background information before beginning a paper or presentation. When you find a topic of interest, you have the option to listen to the audio file, cite the article in APA, MLA, Chicago, or Harvard, or export the citation to several citation management programs. Moreover, you can share the topic via email, embed the permalink into eClass, and translate the article into over 60 languages.

Portrait of Abraham Lincoln is on display on McKee Library’s main floor.

About the Item
A framed portrait of Abraham Lincoln, engraved by artist John Sartain in Philadelphia, PA and published by R.R. Landon, is part of the Thomas Memorial Collection. The portrait shows Lincoln in his younger years and contains his signature.

About the Collection
The Thomas Memorial Collection contains materials related to Abraham Lincoln and the Civil War. Included in this collection are more than 2,700 volumes as well as authentic photos.

View the Item
The portrait is on permanent display on the main floor of McKee Library. Additional items in the collection may be viewed upon request. Please contact Deyse Bravo at dbravo@southern.edu for more information on the library's special collections.

Call for Artists
McKee Library features multiple artists throughout the academic year. We accept most mediums and themes as long as the works follow university guidelines. Students are encouraged to exhibit their works, so please share this information widely. If you are an artist or know of someone who is interested in exhibiting his/her work, please email Katie McGrath at kmgrath@southern.edu.

Art on Digital Exhibit
Art previously exhibited in McKee Library can be found on permanent digital exhibit on KnowledgeExchange@Southern, Southern Adventist University’s institutional repository. To access the galleries, select McKee Library under Collections, then Art in the Library.
