McKee Library wins ALA AWARD
The library’s 2017-2018 Annual Report, whose editor is Jessica Spears, was one of the winners of the PR Xchange competition from the Library Leadership & Management Association, a division of the American Library Association (ALA).
This award “recognizes the very best public relations materials produced by libraries in the past year.” (http://www.ala.org/llama/awards/prxchange_bestofshow). You can see a list of the winners here. McKee Library is featured on page 38.
The PR Xchange Awards Ceremony was held on Sunday, June 23, 2019 as part of the annual ALA Conference.

McKee Library offers family zoo pass this academic year
McKee Library is proud to partner with the Chattanooga Zoo to offer a zoo pass this academic year. This pass grants access to the zoo for two adults and up to four children and may be checked out for a period of 7 days.
In addition, a 10% discount is provided for the purchase of a membership while using the pass.
To reserve the pass, please search for “Zoo Pass” on the library’s main page. Once located, select “Request” and complete the short form. Please note that you must be signed in to place the request. You will receive an email once the pass is available, which you can then pick up at the library’s circulation desk.

Switch On Your Brain: The Key to Peak Happiness, Thinking, and Health

Written by Caroline Leaf
BV4598.4 .L43 2013

The author offers a Christianity-based prescription for better health and wholeness through correct thinking patterns, declaring that we are not victims of our biology and sharing with readers the “switch” in our brains that enables us to live happier, healthier, more enjoyable lives in which we can achieve our goals, maintain our weight, and even become more intelligent.

McKee Library has access to a streaming video database called Films on Demand. This database has over 41,416 streaming videos on all topics, and over 300,000 searchable segments.

When you click on a segment, you have the option to share it via Google Classroom or email. You can also add it to a playlist, a favorites list, cite it in MLA, Chicago, APA, and Harvard, export it to bibliographic management programs, create a segment from a segment, copy the permalink, embed a link in eClass, and view and search the transcript.

Signed Portrait of Mark Twain is on display on McKee Library’s main floor.

About the Item
A signed, framed portrait of Mark Twain, dated January 14, 1908, is part of McKee Library’s collection. This portrait was originally given to the mother of Geraldine Farrar, the famous American Soprano. Framed beside the portrait is a historical interpretation of the portrait written by Victor Fischer, senior archivist of the Mark Twain Project.

About the Collection
The Duane and Eunice Bietz Collection houses books by and about Mark Twain. Included in the collection are several rare first editions, signed copies, periodicals, memorabilia, and authentic letters written by Mark Twain.

View the Item
The portrait is on permanent display on the main floor of McKee Library in Deyse Bravo’s office. Additional items in the collection may be viewed upon request. Please contact Deyse Bravo at dbravo@southern.edu for more information on the library’s special collections.

Call for Artists
McKee Library features multiple artists throughout the academic year. We accept most mediums and themes as long as the works follow university guidelines. Students are encouraged to exhibit their works, so please share this information widely. If you are an artist or know of someone who is interested in exhibiting his/her work, please email Katie McGrath at kcmgrath@southern.edu.

Art on Digital Exhibit
Art previously exhibited in McKee Library can be found on permanent digital exhibit on KnowledgeExchange@Southern, Southern Adventist University’s institutional repository. To access the galleries, select McKee Library under Collections, then Art in the Library.
