MARGE SEIFERT SCHOLARSHIP

McKee Library continues to award student workers with scholarship fund

In June of 2010, the faculty and staff of McKee Library created the McKee Library Scholarship Fund with the purpose of aiding our student workers with tuition costs. In 2014, this fund became known as the Marge Seifert Scholarship, in honor of the beloved librarian who had recently retired after many years of service at McKee Library.

This scholarship is available to students who have worked for the library a minimum of one year for 8 hours per week or more, maintain a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA, and meet the financial need qualification. Students are encouraged to apply and an internal committee makes the final decision based on the student’s short essay response and a recommendation from her direct supervisor.

To date, this fund has awarded a total of $4,750 to 11 students.

Donations

If you would like to contribute to the Marge Seifert Scholarship fund, please go to southern.edu/give, choose “Other” from the drop down menu, and type in Marge Seifert Scholarship when prompted. Employees who would like to donate via payroll deduction can do so by filling out this form.

More Information

Please contact Deyse Bravo at dbravo@southern.edu for more information on the scholarship.

LIBKEY NOMAD

Google Chrome browser extension quickly connects you to McKee Library content

LibKey Nomad is a Google Chrome browser extension that automatically provides instant links to full text content for articles subscribed to by McKee Library -or open access alternatives - as you do research on the web and come across literature.

In each case, Nomad works with McKee Library to figure out the fastest path to content across thousands of publisher websites. Special enhancement is also performed in-line on sites like PubMed and Wikipedia.

After installation, LibKey Nomad prompts you to select your subscribing institution. After that, it simply automatically scans for scholarly content wherever you may roam.

Directions

Complete directions on installing LibKey Nomad on your computer are available at www.southern.edu/mckee-library/Help-Services/libkeynomad.html.

Questions?

Please contact Donald Martin at dvmartin@southern.edu with any questions. One of the librarians can also come to your office or faculty meeting to answer questions and help with the installation process.

Thanks!: How the New Science of Gratitude Can Make You Happier

Written by Robert A. Emmons, Ph.D.
BF575 .G68 E46 2007

Editor-in-chief of the Journal of Positive Psychology
Dr. Robert Emmons draws on the first major scientific study of the subject to show how the systematic cultivation of gratitude can measurably change people's lives. People who regularly practice grateful thinking can increase their “set point” for happiness by as much as 25 percent.
The Issues & Controversies database provides background information for over 1,000 hot topics in the world today. The information for the articles comes from hundreds of news organizations, magazines and journals, groups and institutes, government agencies, and editorial. There are fifteen broad categories, with many topics listed under each category. Broad categories include crime, law, the judicial system, family, teenagers, community, military, war, terrorism, drugs, alcohol, tobacco, global issues, foreign policy, race, rights, liberties, economy, money, business, government, politics, science, technology, computers, education, schools, health, medicine, nutrition, society, culture, religion, energy, environment, media, journalism, social networking, transportation, infrastructure, and urban affairs.

When you choose a topic, you are provided with an overview of the topic, a video, and pro/con articles on various sub issues surrounding the main topic. There are also curriculum tools for students about how to analyze sources and present their research. In addition, there are tools for educators to assess student speeches, explore a point of view, prevent plagiarism, and create lesson plans. Other resources include overview videos, debate videos, quick-take videos, court cases, and editorial cartoons.
