

2000

Kaleidoscope: The Southern Accent's Perspective Magazine

Southern Adventist University

Follow this and additional works at: https://knowledge.e.southern.edu/southern\_accent

---

Recommended Citation

Southern Adventist University, "Kaleidoscope: The Southern Accent's Perspective Magazine" (2000). Southern Accent - Student Newspaper. 68.

https://knowledge.e.southern.edu/southern\_accent/68

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives & Publications at KnowledgeExchange@Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Southern Accent - Student Newspaper by an authorized administrator of KnowledgeExchange@Southern. For more information, please contact jspears@southern.edu.

kaleidoscope

the southern accent's perspective magazine

© 2000

Playing in my greatgrandmother's house off of College Drive with my uncle. I had some plastic toy.

—Kristin Stagg, Sophomore

Watching TV in a hospital waiting room, anticipating the birth of my sister.

—Erinn Burnside, Sophomore

was watching two babies in the nursery of a hospital. One was black, one was white, and I wondered which was my brother.

—Gina Thurber, Sophomore

My mother was changing my diaper while I stood on a chair in our kitchen.

—James Hanson, School of Music Dean

I had a blue owl that would sing if you pulled its orange handled cord. I would stand up in my crib and listen to the song.

—Amber Flechas, Sophomore

My grandmother was undergoing chemotherapy with me when I was little. I remember running around with just her wig and my little red shoes on.

—Suzanne Seeley, Senior

My neighbor, Sheila, running down the road to play in my sandbox with me.

—Mike Cauley, Senior

I remember the white shoes of a Macado performer that came to our apartment...I don't even remember his face.

—David Haluska, Sophomore

Our little neighbor kid telling my brothers and I that it was his house and his ball and that meant we had to play by HIS rules.

—Jacob Mertins, Senior

Chasing tornadoes in Iowa.

—Nick Jensen, Sophomore

Eating Baby Rice cereal mixed with mashed bananas, yum!

—Patrick Crane, Junior

I was playing a game where my brother and I would run out and lay down on the road. I didn't get up fast enough. My first memory is being run over.

—Eric Dingman, Sophomore

What is your first memory?

Why did you choose your major?

I chose my major (family studies) because I want to be a very educated mommy. —Carrie Mercer, Sophomore

I have this infatuation with opening an Adventist dance club. —Clint Higgenbotham, Freshman

I have a great love for writing and news. —Daniel Olson, Junior

I want to work with young people. I had a summer at camp with a terror cabin and it made me realize how many people need help and I want to make a difference. —Jennifer Murdoch, Junior

I chose my major because I want students to learn more about our religion and the love of Christ. Also, I learn how to share the gospel with others. —Jen Hanks, Freshman

I chose physics because I don't like sleep or people. —Nick Vence, Sophomore

What do you think would be the best job?

Mr. Clean's barber

—Jason Belyeu, Junior

Horse trainer

—Anthony Southard
Freshman

OF-GYN, because delivering new babies is a wonderful experience.

—Gary Rustad, Senior

Top Ventures

—David Colburn, Sophomore

Professional vacation taker

—Adam Case, Junior

Martial Arts Instructor

—Gregg Aguirre, Senior

President of the United States because you get to change the world.

—Ryan Miller, Freshman

Getting paid a whole lot of money for doing a whole lot of nothing.

—Edwin Abraham, Senior

Anything that requires people to say "Yes, Mr. President."

—Keith Hair, Freshman

Teacher or Hall Desk Worker

—Manuel De Jesus Vela, Freshman

Tablet Hall Desk Worker

—Hector Solera, Freshman

Girl's Dean or Officer 147

—Dan Kuntz, Junior

Personal shopper

—Tarah Solie, Sophomore

Actress, they can be anything else they want.

—Damar Ramos, Freshman

Who is the one person in the past that is important to you?

Corrie Ten Boom
—Ingrid Skantz,
Assistant Director of Public Relations

Einstein, because of his hair.
—Donnie Lighthall, Senior

My Grandma Heisey. It was her positive influence that made being a Christian something to be proud of.
—Ted Struntz, Junior

Joseph—he saved millions of lives with grain in Egypt.
—Heath Runyon, Freshman

Ellen White
—David Dickerson, Senior

Anyone who took time to help me when I've needed it.
—Paul Myers, Junior

Charlemagne, because he restored knowledge and learning in Europe.
—Danny Goodge,
Junior

Thomas Jefferson: He set the course for America.
—Ian Wilkinson, Junior

Ghandi —Stan Thorne, Junior

Jane Austen, she is my favorite author
—Heidi Olson, Sophomore

My babysitter, Momma Sydney
—David Benton, Sophomore

Abraham Lincoln
—Nathan Taube, Freshman

Harry Carry, announcer for the Chicago Cubs.
—Jason Calvert, Freshman

Malcolm X
—Raeshawn Johnson, Sophomore

kaleidoscope

the southern accent's perspective magazine

hans olson
editor

jyll taylor
photography editor

jennifer williams
copy editor

dennis negrón
faculty advisor

david leonard
quote compiler

Kaleidoscope is the year-end perspective magazine of The Southern Accent. The Southern Accent is the weekly student-run newspaper of Southern Adventist University. It can be contacted by writing at PO Box 370, Collegedale, TN 37315-0370; calling (423) 238-2721; or e-mailing accent@southern.edu.

It can be contacted by writing at PO Box 370.