Kaleidoscope: The Southern Accent's Perspective Magazine

Southern Adventist University

Follow this and additional works at: https://knowledge.e.southern.edu/southern_accent

Recommended Citation
https://knowledge.e.southern.edu/southern_accent/68

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives & Publications at KnowledgeExchange@Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Southern Accent - Student Newspaper by an authorized administrator of KnowledgeExchange@Southern. For more information, please contact jspears@southern.edu.
Playing in my great-grandmother's house off of College Drive with my uncle. I had some plastic toy.
—Kristin Stagg, Sophomore

I remember the white shoes of a Macado performer that came to our apartment...I don't even remember his face.
—David Haluska, Sophomore

Watching TV in a hospital waiting room, anticipating the birth of my sister.
—Erinn Burnside, Sophomore

Our little neighbor kid telling my brothers and I that it was his house and his ball and that meant we had to play by HIS rules.
—Jacob Mertins, Senior

I was watching two babies in the nursery of a hospital. One was black, one was white, and I wondered which was my brother.
—Gina Thurber, Sophomore

Chasing tornadoes in Iowa.
—Nick Jensen, Sophomore

My grandmother was undergoing chemotherapy with me when I was little. I remember running around with just her wig and my little red shoes on.
—Suzanne Seeley, Senior

Eating Baby Rice cereal mixed with mashed bananas, yum!
—Patrick Crane, Junior

My mother was changing my diaper while I stood on a chair in our kitchen.
—James Hanson, School of Music Dean

My neighbor, Sheila, running down the road to play in my sandbox with me.
—Mike Cauley, Senior

I was playing a game where my brother and I would run out and lay down on the road. I didn't get up fast enough. My first memory is being run over.
—Eric Dingman, Sophomore

What is your first memory?
I chose my major (family studies) because I want to be a very educated mommy.  –Carrie Mercer, Sophomore

I have this infatuation with opening an Adventist dance club.  –Clint Higgenbotham, Freshman

I have a great love for writing and news.
–Daniel Olson, Junior

I want to work with young people. I had a summer at camp with a terror cabin and it made me realize how many people need help and I want to make a difference.  –Jennifer Murdoch, Junior

I chose my major because I want students to learn more about our religion and the love of Christ. Also, I learn how to share the gospel with others.  –Jen Hanks, Freshman

I chose physics because I don’t like sleep or people.  –Nick Vence, Sophomore
What do you think would be the best job?

Mr. Clean's barber
—Jason Belyeu, Junior

Horse trainer
—Anthony Southard
Freshman

President of the United States because you get to change the world
—Ryan Miller, Freshman

An adventurer
—David Colburn, Sophomore

Ortho-GYN, because delivering new babies is a wonderful experience
—Gary Rustad, Senior

Getting paid a whole lot of money for doing a whole lot of nothing
—Edwin Abraham, Senior

 Anything that requires people to say “Yes, Mr. President.”
—Keith Hair, Freshman

Martial Arts Instructor
—Brett Aguirre, Senior

President of the United States: because you get to change the world
—Ryan Miller, Freshman

Professional vacation taker
—Adam Case, Junior

Teaching Hall Desk Worker
—Manuel De Jesus Velas, Freshman

Actress, they can be anything else they want
—Damar Ramos, Freshman

Personal shopper
—Terah Solie, Sophomore

Teaching Hall Desk Worker
—Hector Solera, Freshman

Getting paid a whole lot of money for doing a whole lot of nothing
—Edwin Abraham, Senior

Teacher Hall Desk Worker
—Manuel De Jesus Velas, Freshman

Girl's Clean or Officer 147
—Dan Kuntz, Junior
Who is the one person in the past that is important to you?

Corrie Ten Boom
—Ingrid Skantz,
Assistant Director
of Public Relations

My Grandma Heisey. It was her positive influence that made being a Christian something to be proud of.
—Ted Strutz, Junior

Einstein, because of his hair.
—Donnie Lighthall, Senior

Joseph—he saved millions of lives with grain in Egypt.
—Heath Runyon, Freshman

Anyone who took time to help me when I've needed it.
—Paul Myers, Junior

Ellen White
—David Dickerson, Senior

Charlemagne, because he restored knowledge
and learning in Europe.
—Danny Goodge,
Junior

Thomas Jefferson: He set
the course for America.
—Ian Wilkinson, Junior

My babysitter, Momma Sydney
—David Benton, Sophomore

Ghandi —Stan Thorne, Junior

Abraham Lincoln
—Nathan Taube, Freshman

Jane Austen, she is my favorite author
—Heidi Olson, Sophomore

Malcolm X
—Raeshaun Johnson, Sophomore

Harry Caray, announcer for the Chicago
Cubs.
—Jason Calvert, Freshman

kaleidoscope
the southern accent's perspective magazine

hans olson
editor

jyll taylor
photography editor

jennifer williams
copy editor

dennis negrón
faculty advisor

david leonard quote compiler

Kaleidoscope is the year-end perspective magazine of The Southern Accent. The Southern Accent is the weekly student-run newspaper of Southern Adventist University. It can be contacted by writing at PO Box 1710, Glasgow, TN 37337-0170, calling 423-777-2721, or e-mailing accents@southern.edu.