Dear Creekers,

Little Creek Academy's annual Homecoming weekend, November 1-2 is just around a couple of corners. Some of the 101 members of the nine honor classes have been busy networking with each other and indicating their plans for the special weekend. In the event that you have not been notified, I urge you to contact some former classmates and find out what's happening.

Of course, not everyone will be able to come. If so, you would really help make the weekend a success if you could write a short, descriptive letter and add some photographs of your beautiful self and your family. I can assure you, your classmates will be touched that you remembered them. (Please mail your letters and pictures to Rogene.)

As I write this paragraph, I'm looking at two photos of my class. One was taken in 1970, around graduation. The other was taken last year at Homecoming. Taking some risk, I dare to compare the differences. And yet I'm not impressed with contrasts; it is the similarities that catch my searching eye. Anyone would be able to say, "Those are the same people." Wherever our lives have travelled, more about us remains the same than ever changes. And with the advent of plastic surgery, the proposal is more true.

I think you will feel the same way when Homecoming brings us together again. Careers have made us specialize, our religious walk may have taken us in a different direction. Our families have added a dimension to our lives, but more about us is the same than ever changes. Come back, and take your place in the picture.

With warmest personal regards,

Warren Ruf
Alumni President

Dear Creekers,

November 1 is not far away and we hope that all of you are remembering that it is Homecoming Weekend. Warren Ruf, your alumni president, is busy planning for the weekend. Come and join in the fellowship!

I hear that David Dunn '71 and family have gone to the mission field again. Have no address at this time though I am trying to get one. They assured me that they were ready to go back if something opened up, so I am not surprised at all to hear they are in Turkey.

Duane Chesney '84 has joined our staff as choir and voice teacher. We do appreciate his willingness to help in other areas too.
