LIBRARY 101
A self-help guide to your library

McKee Library provides the tools you need to succeed in your academic life – from technology and research materials, to individuals trained to assist you in research and help you navigate the library (AKA, librarians!).

Here are some basic guidelines for getting the most out of your university library!

General Information & Tips
• The library has three zones of study: silent (basement), collaborative (main floor), and quiet (second floor).
• You can print wirelessly from anywhere on campus by visiting bit.ly/sauprint.
• The librarians want to help you! To schedule an appointment, visit the help tab on the library’s website.

Library Website
• Need a quiet place to study individually or with a group? Reserve a private study room for up to three hours by selecting “Reserve a Study Room”.
• Need help with a paper or class project? Schedule an appointment at the Research & Writing Center.
• Researching? We have a variety of databases and course research guides to facilitate your research needs.

Library Hours
• Sunday: 12 p.m. to 11 p.m.
• Monday through Thursday: 7:45 a.m. to 11 p.m.
• Friday: 7:45 a.m. to 2 p.m.
• Saturday: Closed
• Current library hours are available on the website and each month on DIY Library.

Circulation Information
• Check out books, locate and use items on reserve, pick up interlibrary loans, check out laptops, iPads, and surface tablets.
• Books are available for a 2-week check-out.
• Media items are available for a 7-day check-out.
• Need help? Contact Carol Harrison at charrison@southern.edu or (423) 236-2010.
