BOOKS @ MCKEE
How to locate print & electronic books in your library

McKee Library has a vast array of books available for check out or online reading. Here are some helpful tips for searching the library’s catalog.

How the Books are Organized
• McKee Library uses the Library of Congress Classification System to keep the books in order.
• Items are arranged by subject/topic areas.

Searching for a Book
• To locate books, select the “Books and Media” tab on the library’s website.
• For a more detailed search, select “Advanced Search”.
• You can search for a specific type of material by selecting either format or collection under “Limit search to”.

Electronic Books
• To search for e-books, select the “Books and Media” tab, then “Electronic Books”.

Getting Books Out of Storage
• If a book you need happens to be in storage, notify the circulation desk. The worker will be happy to retrieve the book from storage.

Need Help?
• Need help? Contact Carol Harrison at charrison@southern.edu or (423) 236-2010.

Challenge
Social media at McKee Library

Are you on Instagram? If so, McKee Library has a new social media challenge just for you! All are encouraged to tag pictures taken in the library with #McKeeLibrary on Instagram. All entries have a chance to be displayed in the library. The best two photographers chosen by the library staff will win a $25 iTunes gift card. Winners will be chosen on November 28.

Convocation Credit
Upcoming event provides convocation credit opportunity

McKee Library will host the annual Center for the Study of 19th Century America Celebration (formally known as the Mark Twain Celebration) on Friday, October 24th, at 2pm in the library’s Knowledge Commons on the main floor.

This year’s speaker will be Ben Tarnoff, author of The Bohemians: Mark Twain and the San Francisco Writers who Reinvented American Literature. His presentation is entitled “Mark Twain and the Bohemians of the Far Western Frontier”.

Students can earn convocation credit by attending the celebration. Attendees will also be entered into a drawing for signed copies of the authors books and a $50 and $25 Village Market gift certificate.
